4. Recalling paragraph 1 of the submission, the Commission observes that, given the entitlement to the prior submission, the Commission should consider the submission without the "prior consideration" requirement.

5. In these circumstances, the Commission and the Advisory Commission should make every effort to reach a decision in accordance with paragraph 1 of the submission of India.

6. The Commission should provide an opportunity to renew consideration.

The Secretary General
New York, NY 10017
