

Act establishing the breadth of the territorial sea of Belgium,
6 October 1987

Article 1

The breadth of the territorial sea of Belgium shall be established at 12 marine miles, or twenty-two thousand two hundred and twenty-four metres, measured from the coastal low-water mark, or from low-tide elevations on condition that they lie less than 12 marine miles from the low-water mark, or from the outer ends of permanent harbour works extending beyond the said low-water mark, as shown on the large-scale official Belgian charts.

Article 2

Any reference in Belgian legislation or regulations to the territorial sea of Belgium shall be taken to refer to a territorial sea whose breadth is in conformity with that established by the present Act.
