United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea

concluded at Montego Bay, Jamaica

on 10 December 1982

Receipt of the submission made by Japan to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf

The Secretary-General of the United Nations communicates the following:

On 12 November 2008, Japan submitted to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf, in accordance with Article 76 paragraph 5, information on the limits of the continental shelf beyond 200 nautical miles from the baselines from which the breadth of the continental shelf is measured.

It is noted that the Convention entered into force for Japan on 20 July 1996.

In accordance with the Rules of Procedure of the Commission, the present communication is circulated to all Member States of the United Nations, as well as States Parties to the Convention, in order to make public the executive summary of the submission, including all charts and coordinates contained in that summary. The executive summary of the submission is available through the website of the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea, Office of Legal Affairs, at www.un.org/Depts/los.

The consideration of the submission made by Japan will be included in the provisional agenda of the twenty-third session of the Commission to be held in New York in March/April 2009.

Upon completion of the consideration of the submission, the Commission will make recommendations pursuant to Article 76 of the Convention.
