

Distr. RESTRICTED
PRS/2023/CRP.9

ORIGINAL: ENGLISH

GOVERNMENT OF THE BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of IOM. It reflects the views of the author(s) or source(s) indicated. The designation of countries by IOM does not imply any judgment on the quality of their respective governments or their administrative or judicial processes.

deadlines, and every effort is being made to accelerate the reform process, while respecting

There are also very strongly held local views that the next round of constitutional advancement should not be cosmetic in nature, but rather should entail concrete constitutional changes in

In this regard, a Constitutional Review Commission was launched last year to consider next steps in the constitutional advancement of the Territory. Among other things, the Committee

2. The British Virgin Islands also requests the assistance of the relevant UN departments to assist the Territory Government with a local education commission on the issue.

achieving a full measure of self-government.