

United Nations  Nations Unies

contracts continues. The Administration needs to manage the residual risks around the project and maintain project management disciplines to ensure it is completed smoothly within the current timetable and budget. In particular, the Administration should maintain

On the Project schedule and scope

The revised plan to complete the main construction works proved unrealistic and

