

[The page contains multiple lines of text that are almost entirely obscured by heavy black redaction bars. Only a few faint lines of text are visible through the gaps in the redaction.]

Whatever this Committee decides on in terms of what is to eventually be done of law covered by the Articles, it would be in the international community's best interests for that decision to be made by consensus.

4. Singapore looks forward to a fruitful exchange of views on these issues at the working group at this session of the Committee.

5. Thank you, Mr. Chair