

Minister of Finance Meeting on Financing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in the Era of COVID-19 and Beyond September 8th

Statement delivered by Rémy Rioux, IDFC Chairperson

Ministers,
Madam Deputy Secretary General,
Excellencies,

I thank the UN for the invitation on behalf of the IDFC Club I am heading and its 26 members, national and regional public development banks that you own and guide as Finance Ministers.

We participated actively in the working group 2, and I will just complement the excellent interventions of the EU, Rwanda, the UK, Fiji and the UNDP. Thanks to all of them.

I am also here as the host of the "Finance in Common Summit" which will take place on November 12th, and will gather for the first time ever the 450 public development banks (PDBs) evenly distributed in the world - multilateral, international, regional, national, subnational, all of us - to structure and mobilize our community, following your guidance, Ministers, to build back better.
