

COURT ETIQUETTE

- 1 The Judge will usually be robed for public hearings.
- 2 Counsel will wear formal business attire.
- 3 When the Judge enters the courtroom, all persons present will stand.
- 4 The Judge will bow to counsel and, at the same time, counsel will bow to the Judge. This is a mark of mutual professional respect.
- 5 Counsel will stand when addressing the Judge and when addressed by the Judge. Counsel will sit when the Judge is addressed by another counsel and when that
