

Professor Melisew Dejene Lemma

Professor Melisew Dejene Lemma (PhD in Policy and Development Studies) is an Assistant Professor at the University of Washington (2012-2015) and Ohio State University (2010-2012). He has worked in Texas and Boston Massachusetts and attended training and conferences at various universities and professional groups among others MIT, Harvard University, Boston College, University of California, Berkeley, and the University of Toronto.

Melisew served as Director of Corporate Communication of Hawassa University from 2011 to May 2015, member of Hawassa University Senate (2014- May 2015), Hawassa University's University Council (2014- May 2015), Founding Member and Board Secretary of Hawassa University's Quarterly Newsletter (2011 to 2015). He has been a faculty member of Hawassa University since September 2004. He initiated various research projects in the area of development where he served as deputy coordinator and coordinator. He also served as a local researcher for the Research Base, UK (2015).

Melisew attended international workshops and training in Germany, Morocco, Namibia, Norway, South Africa, the UK and