

(Qatar Youth Hostels)

(www.hiqatar.com)

(Mariam Ghorbal Activity coordinator info@hiqatar.com)

Chapeau

(Add your concise, concrete, and action-oriented language for the chapeau)

Chapter I. Sustainable development and financing for development

- Develop coordination mechanisms between the institutions concerned with tourism and the environment to facilitate the implementation of civil society projects, individuals, and collective initiatives in the field of ecotourism and involve institutions and ministries in the country development. Empowering civil society institutions to promote the concept of tourism, especially ecotourism, and to make tourism a social service activity and a means of sustainable development. T(a s)2 (o)tcbn (h)-4 (O)4 (o)c4 (o)-2 ()cc sustainability of young people.
- Encourage private institutions to contribute to the development of sustainable tourism issues.

- Directing the contribution to public sector funding for research and development implement innovation towards sustainable solutions.
- Allocate larger financial support packages to small businesses related to local handicraft production
- Increase programs in the field of cultural exchange and volunteerism in the field of tourism and make them more acceptable to a wider segment of young people through cooperation.

