

its work on this critical general recommendation in January. I am also very pleased that your work on a general recommendation on article 2 – a cornerstone provision of the Convention – is expected to proceed expeditiously in the months ahead.

Chairperson, distinguished members,

w

w