Commission on the Status of Women

Fifty-seventh session
4-15 March 2013
Agenda item 3 (a) (ii)
Follow-up to the Fourth World Conference on Women and to the twenty-third special session of the General Assembly entitled "Women 2000: gender equality, deelopment and peace for the twentyfirst century": implementation of strategic abjectives drindtactives in exilic wall have been upon and men, including caregiving in the context of HIV/AIDS

Caregiving in the context of HIV/AIDS and recognizing and valuing unpaid care work

Moderator's summary

1. On 12 March 2013, the Commission on the Status of Women held an interactive dialogue to review proess in implementing the agreed conclusions on the theme "Equal sharing of responsibilities betweenomen and men, including caregiving in the context of HIV/AID'S adopted by the Commission at its fifty third session in 2009 (E/2009/Æ/CN.6/2009/15,chap. I, s

Programme on HIV/AIDS (UNAIDS) and Ms. Paz Lopez, Technical Adviser, United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women), Mexico, served, respectively, as discussants for the two segments. Representatives from 16 nember States, one intergovernmental organization and

2 13-26488

6. Participants cited progress in the area of ensuring equal access to HIV prevention, treatment, care and support for both men waxmeden. Countries have implemented various campaigns aimiditatives to encourage HIV testing and early diagnosis inequalities with only selected groups provided <code>foeaving</code> outwomen at the grass rootslevel.

13-26488 3

15. Throughout the discussions, participants acknowledged that while caregiving is of great value to society, it still remains socially and economically unrecognized, caregiving networks through earmarked budgets and seats in planning and decision making bodies that design and fund community development and social service programmes for people ling with HIV or affected by AIDS;

13-26488 5

- (c) Increase public andrivate financing to enable caregiving networks and alliances to undertake incongenerating, health, savings and credit initiatives; build capacity for organizing and leadership developmental conduct accountability and transparency initiative sated to HIV and health budgets;
- (d) Document, disseminate and share learning from good practice and existing service models, including those that encourage and engage men to share in caregiving responsibilities, and ensure better gerselestive research and attaction to use in advocacy and awarenessising as well as to improve the

е

6 13-26488